H1 -

from the "DEN" MOTHER

First I'd like to say hello to all of you that I know personally, in so many States all over the country. Most of you I know from meetings at various Coin Shows I have attended. Many of you I know much better and have had the enjoyment of many hours of social pleasure in your homes.

Hello to all of you that I don't know personally, I know many of you by your name, by your handwriting and by the very enjoyable, sometimes amusing letters, you write.

I want to welcome all of you to our "Collectors' Den". The Collectors' Den is not something we thought of overnight. I can remember discussing this for several years, driving in the car, over coffee, so many times.... This has sort of been a dream for us that we hoped someday would take shape.

The Collectors' Den is not just a monthly newspaper, not just an auction - bidboard, not just another price list dressed up in a new outfit. It is "Our World of Interest", the interest we have gained from you... talking to you at our shop, reading your letters, dealing with you at coin shows. It is a little bit of each of you.

I hope you will join us in our new undertaking. We can't do it alone, we need your support, your suggestions, we need you, the collector, the dealer, the researcher. Together we can have a lot of fun and learn a lot we never knew before.

I am one of the members of a club known as "Coin Widows". You wives know exactly what I mean. I'd like to say a few words to you, who I feel I know pretty well.

Being the wife of a dealer or collector is not easy, but it can be so much fun. I have, through the years, been able to watch my husband do one thing he thoroughly enjoys. In fact, he wouldn't be happy doing anything else. Those of you who know Stan will agree. His interests are so varied and unlimited, no road is closed to him. I have to some extent caught this from him and can enjoy many of the same interests. Had he been born a Multi-Millionaire he probably would never be a dealer today but a full time "Collectors' Collector". However, this not being the case he has become satisfied with just handling the variety of material he has and passing it on to collectors and dealers and being able to say.. I have at one time owned a $4.00 Stella, or a $750.00 Samurai Sword, etc.

We thoroughly enjoy what we are doing, we enjoy the people we work with and the people we meet in the hobby, your all pretty nice. Let us hear from you, we want to know all of you.

Best regards,

Marcia (the wife)

P.S. We depend on your response and orders to publish the Collectors' Den. As the one who sits behind the desk and fills the orders, I'll do my best to see that you all get personal service. Give us a try, if you see something listed that you want, give us an opportunity to serve you.

$5.00 PRIZES ARE YOURS

Under the title "Collectors Quiz" in this issue are 5 questions about various collectors items. The earliest post-marked correct answer on each question will bring the lucky winner a $5.00 merchandise certificate which may be spent like money with us. Duplicate Awards will be presented in case of ties. Winners and Answers will be announced.

NOTICE

IT MAY PAY YOU TO CHECK THE AUCTION AND MAILBID SECTION (PAGE 13-18) FOR SOME SCARCE AND CHOICE ITEMS IN YOUR PARTICULAR COLLECTING FIELD.

IF YOU HAVE NEVER BID ON AUCTIONS, YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELVES TO GIVE A TRY.

In the City of San Fernando de Bazar April 22, 1831, before me, sole constitutional Alcalde of the said city and the witnesses to my proceedings in the absence of any notary public within the meaning of the law, appeared James Bowie, bachelor, declared that he is fully emancipated, a native of the United States of North America, legitimate son by the lawful marriage of Resin Bowie and Elvy Jone, Resin Bowie being dead and both parents natives and residents of the said United States and declared:

That as he was about to contract marriage in accordance with the rites of the Catholic Church with Maria Ursula de Beramendi, a maiden who is a native of this city and legitimate daughter by lawful marriage of Juan Martin de Beramendi and Maria Josefa Navarro, both of whom were born in this city and resided here in consideration of the virtue, integrity and other praiseworthy qualities with which his future wife is endowed,
he therefore pledges her by way of dowry and in payment of prenuptial gifts or donations to use at her pleasure if the said marriage shall be consummated and in no other event, the sum of

Mr. Stanley K. Rupert

Dear Mr. Rupert:

I am pleased to receive the Collector's Den and enjoy reading your comments. You may be interested to know that the editorial on numismatic collections in art museums aroused my interest to such an extent that I went to our local art museum and asked to see their collection. They were glad to remove it from their vault for my inspection. Most of the items, with the exception of the medals, have never been on public display. For the most part, the collection is stored in cardboard boxes and inadequately indexed. In other words, I found your comments about numismatic collections in art museums to be all too true in this instance. I have, therefore, offered my services to the museum so that they may eventually be able to display items of numismatic interest as they are presently doing with their medal collection. This volunteer work will keep me busy for some time, but it is an interesting and educational experience initiated by your article in the Collector's Den.

Sincerely,
E. Taylor Duncan

Dear Mr. Rupert,

I have received Volume 1, numbers 1 and 2 of your delightful new newspaper, for the library of the Token and Medal Society. I wish to thank you, on behalf of the members and myself, for this thoughtful addition to our library.

C-25 is the catalog number assigned to "Collectors' Den", and it will be acknowledged and listed in the next issue of the TAMS Journal - due in June.

Yours, for happy collecting-

Gene Alexander

LETTERS

An Open Letter to Stanley K. Rupert, c/o THE COLLECTOR'S DEN

Dear Stan,

When I left San Antonio in mid-1964 for what turned out to be a five year "jaunt" around the Far East, coin collecting in the United States (in general) and coin collecting in San Antonio (in particular) was far different from what I have found on my return. My impressions may or may not be relevant, but here they are:

When I left, America was in the grips of the roll and bag collector. Bags changed hands almost hundreds of times without ever once being opened to see just what was inside. Teletype was the magic word in those days, and even your old shop downtown on Houston Street (now part of HemisFair) echoed to the clatter of the keys of commerce. Thousands of would-be investors clamored to buy rolls of 1950-D nickels, even at $25.00 per coin. The closest thing we have to that sort of nonsense today is the silver speculator, buying up any kind of coin, as long as it is 1964 or earlier. Many "coin dealers" have gone in for this sort of thing, including several friends of mine. I am delighted to see that you are not buying silver along with them. And, of course, your teletype is now only a painful memory.

Another painful memory is the hope of finding a coin for one's collection in pocket change. Perhaps this explains why the 39¢ Whitman albums are gathering dust around the corner. Where have gone the kids who almost dreamed out the teletype just five years ago? I think they are finding more fun and a reasonable challenge in comic books and barbed wire today. They come to Collectors' Den in droves, but it is Gene Warner and the comics that lure them, not the pennies and nickels and dimes you also have on display.

Not that you don't attract coin collectors! Good grief, what a mob you had here Saturday when the last bid-board closed. Dyed-in-the-wool collectors they were, too. Not meaning to throw you any kudos, not if I can help it, but I think your auctions have done more for numismatics in San Antonio than anything else I've noted or heard about. The coin clubs certainly aren't doing much. In truth, I understand that the San Antonio clubs are ailing considerably, and perhaps death is imminent for at least two of them. Ah, sic transit gloria. Remember five years ago, when San Antonio could sponsor a real fine numismatic wingding? With an attendance of three at the meetings today, they can't even sponsor a respectable crowd in the men's room. And S.A. isn't alone. Coin shows used to be dynamic and well attended, but now they have the emasculated look of the last encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Dealers while away the time swapping amongst themselves, and it takes real courage now to go to these affairs. I think you know what I mean -- when an old trouser such as yourself forgoes not one but three shows in a row -- the handwriting is on the wall.

The hobby has been returned to the hard-core collector alright, but the wolves picked it clean first. There aren't any collectable coins in circulation, so there is very little new blood coming into the hobby. The old guard isn't going to desert, but it isn't going to be of too much help to the dealer who doesn't have what they are looking for -- and what they want is choice material, not something you can buy over the counter every day to put into your stock. I personally think it will be another ten to twenty years before we see another collector boom such as we had in 1964 when I left the country. By then the clad-coins may be attractive to the kids.

In the meantime, their interest in an FDR dime collection is going to take a back seat to having the complete series of CAPTAIN MARVEL. In time even I'll get over the shock of seeing you advertise -- AND SELL -- some vintage 1910 paper fans!

But I shouldn't be so darn pessimistic! In 1964 WORLD COINS was just getting up a good head of steam, and now it is really going to town. Whole gobs of reference material has been published on foreign, including one fine one on Central America by your former Wonderland store manager, and a guy I miss seeing around the joint, Holland Wallace. Whitman has put out a nice series of books on world coins. Today the collector knows a darn sight more about foreign than he did five years ago. And he's collecting it! Boy, is he collecting it! I came back here figuring to do a little cherry-picking on Oriental coins, but I was more than a little disappointed.

And I think COLLECTORS' DEN is a great idea. It seems to be good for you, and I know it's good for the collector. Yeh, I'll complain from time to time about some of the non-numismatic stuff listed in it, but with so many collecting areas to help take up the slack, all of them get a fair shake and a good run for their money. Already I have gotten some fine bargains from your auctions, and on some nice choice material at that.

Numismatics has changed in five years, Stan, and I'm not so sure it hasn't been for the best. Collectors of U.S. coins are going to go through some pretty lean years, perhaps, but there is still hope that the bag men will allow a few odds and ends to dribble into circulation. In the meantime, there's always world coins - a never ending challenge to the hobbyist. And while I wait for the new day to dawn, I think I'll see how many issues of BATMAN you have on hand. Never can tell, if you can't fight them.....

Yours as always,

John A. Novak

Dear Stan & Co.

Thanks a lot for the free copies of "Collectors' Den". I have enjoyed them a lot and want to make sure I get the fourth and subsequent issues. I look forward to receiving "Collectors' Den" each month and would like to see it published BIWEEKLY.

I used to be a coin collector but find my interests going more to the Comic Book field since I found ~~much~~ out about it mostly because it is still possible to find goodies in general circulation.

I am still collecting coins but my interests have narrowed to Crowns of the world, particularly those of France and Belgium.
Thanks for publishing "COLLECTORS' DEN" -- All of us up here in Wichita Falls enjoy it.

Sincerely

Anton W. Mullins

THE AWESOME PLANS

THE NAZI PLAN STARTED MUCH EARLIER THAN PEOPLE REALIZE. NO MACHINE HAS EVER BEEN AS THOROUGH AS THE NAZI AND SOVIET MACHINES. SOCIALIST MAYDAY PINS ARE LISTED HERE AS EARLY AS 1900. IN THE NAZI BADGES, PINS AND MEDALS YOU CAN SEE THE PROPAGANDA AIMED AT THE YOUNG, WORKING CLASS AND GENERAL MASS OF PEOPLE. MANY PIECES, ESPECIALLY EARLY SOVIET (SOCIALIST) ARE VERY RARE.

Comic Corner

Comic collectors give me a hand! Seeing as how this is your corner, why don't you drop me a card or letter telling me what you'd like to see listed. Once each month I find myself surrounded by 70,000 comics (more or less), hundreds of super heroes, and a state of indecision as to which ones to list. Nature did not endow me with super powers like our comic characters so you collectors will just have to help me pick your favorites.

We have two new features this month. The first is what we hope will become a regular series of articles on different aspects of comic collecting. Our good friend Ron Rakun has helped us get the ball rolling with a great article on the TIMELY series. If you have a favorite character or series you wish to tell the world about we will gladly print your article.

Last but not least we have introduced a little feature that we hope you will enjoy in the form of a contest. It is our belief that no super hero should ever be forgotten, but it's up to you to prove us right by identifying the ones that we'll be giving you each month.

ALL comics listed are average good to fine condition complete with both covers unless otherwise stated. Second choice should be given wherever possible as some issues are in short supply.

FROM THE GOLDEN AGE.....

"The Timelys"

by Ron Rakun

To the serious collectors of comic books and related material, the "Golden Age" is considered a sacred period. When we speak of the "Golden Age", we speak of a period from about 1939 to 1946. From this period came the finest comics of them all, the Timelys, forerunners to the Atlas and Marvel comics of today.

Timely featured such publications as All Winners, All Select, Capt. America, Human Torch, Marvel Mystery, Mystic, Sub-Mariner, Young Allies, Daring Mystery, Kid Komiks, Miss Fury and last but not least, the fabulous U.S.A. Comics. U.S.A. was one of the finest wartime publications ever. It ran 17 issues and introduced many characters that never appeared in any other comic books. Twelve of the U.S.A.'s, #6 thru #17 featured the original Capt. America and Bucky. Also, the Mighty Destroyer and the Whizzer were U.S.A. regulars. I have all but 5 of the U.S.A. comics in my personal collection.

Another of the great Timelys was Mystic Comics which ran 10 issues. This was one of Timelys finest, character-wise. Issue #6 introduced the Mighty Destroyer, a masked superhero with a secret identity, who fought the Nazis in Timely Comics from 1940 to 1946. Mystic also had many other fine superheroes and is one of the more sought after Timelys.

Marvel Mystery Comics was Timely's longest runner. It ran 92 issues and introduced such great heroes as Human Torch, Sub-Mariner and the Angel. These were known as Timely's "Big Three". Marvel Mystery also introduced Miss America in issue #49. She was a female Capt. America.

Then there came two other Marvel Mystery type Timelys. All Winners was one of the best of it's kind. It ran for 21 issues, but whether there was a #20 or not is not very clear. There is no information on it. The first issue came out in summer, 1941 and featured the great art work of Simon & Kirby of Capt. America. Issues #19 and 21 featured the All Winners Squad and are 2 of the harder Timelys to obtain. The other was All Select Comics, which was a take-off on All Winners, but being very poor in stories and art, lasted only 11 issues. Issue #2 featured Capt. America versus the Red Skull and was probably the best issue. All Select died after #11 and became Blonde Phantom with #12.

In March, 1941, Capt. America hit the newsstand in his own magazine. The first 10 issues were drawn by Joe Simon and Jack Kirby and were really fine art work. Stan Lee, Marvel's Mastermind of today had his start in the early Capt. Americas. The Human Torch was also featured in Capt. America Comics from #19 to #78, excluding #20. Other great artists to draw Capt. America were Al Avison and the covers were drawn by the great Schomburg, who drew a great deal of the other Timely covers.

Human Torch was another character to take off in his own magazine. This ran 36 issues, 3 of them in the '50's. Issues #5,8,10 were the famed "Battle Issues" where the Human Torch fought the Sub-Mariner.

In the summer of 1941, Simon & Kirby created the Young Allies. They were to run 20 issues and feature a bunch of kids united to fight the Nazis, Japs & Criminals. They were led by Capt. America's pal Bucky and the Human Torch's sidekick Tore. Another similar comic was Kid Komiks, it featured the Young Allies and others, but never did go very big.

Daring Mystery was another one of the better Timelys. It was along the lines of Mystic and featured characters all of it's own. Daring ran just 9 issues, but like Mystic, is much sought after. The first 8 were real great, story and art wise. Issue #9 is not so well known.

Miss Fury came out in her own magazine to run 8 issues. Tough Kid Squad #1 was a one-shot, Feb., 1943. Amazing Comics, one issue, Fall, 1944. Mystic Comics (second series), which was no where near as good as the first started in 1944 and ran just 3 issues. Then there was Complete Comics #2. Could have been the second issue of Amazing Comics. Later on in the late 40's there was Namora and a few other offbeat titles.

No written article this short can do justice to this great series, and unfortunately many of today's collectors due to the scarcity of these comics may never be able to enjoy them. But the collector of today's Atlas and Marvel comics owe much to these "Golden Age" pioneers.

Hear ye, hear ye.

This is my first column for "COLLECTORS DEN", and I feel that I must start off by saying "thank you". This goes out to everyone who has bid, sent in lots, or joined the bidboard. The response has really been great and we want you all to know that we really appreciate it.

A lot of local people have come in and asked questions about our operation, and about me personally. And I don't blame them. I collect coins too, and I like to know the people that I deal with personally. Because of this, I feel that our mail bidders should know about us too.

Most of you know Stan and his wife, Marcia, from the many shows that they have attended, but my name is probably new to you. I have been collecting for about 7 of my 24 years, (main interest is Buffalo nickels) I have been working for Stan for about 6 months now. Before that I worked for a coin and stamp dealer in England, for about two years. And that was quite an experience, and come to think of it, working for Stan is quite an experience too.

Enough of me, and a little about the people who really hold this operation together. First, Gene Warner, he is our store manager. He has been with Stan for about five years now, and in that time has become quite a whiz kid on the odd stuff, like Comic books, swords, German military, etc. He is an old man of 28 years, but he is still young enough to enjoy a good party now and then.

Next is Red Sherrva, our man in the foreign department. For a guy who is only 26 years old, and has only been with Stan for about two years, he knows foreign like he wrote the brown book or something. To give you an idea, he collects Chinese cash coins, and he can even explain them to people. We keep him around though because he is the only one who ever has any cigarettes.

And then comes the important people, Stan & Marcia. The brains and beauty of the outfit, (and if you ask Stan, he will probably say that he is both, but don't believe it) They are around here to pay the rent so the rest of us can enjoy ourselves.

Last, but by no means least, comes the important one. The top dog. This one is young, and old; short and fat; tall and thin. This is the one who is the heart behind the shop, and the paper. This one is you!

Well, see you next month, and keep those letters coming in.

Ray
